*festival dates

Entertainers and nonprofit organizations are subject to the same attendance/cancellation policies and community standards as market vendors (see Market Policies & Procedures, sections V, XI, and XII).

Entertainers

We invite family-friendly entertainers of all ages and genres to perform at the Market. Performers who are new to the Market must submit a sample recording for review. Preference is given to local acts.

The Market provides entertainers with a 10'x10' canopy, PA system, microphone, and mic stand. All other equipment needed must be provided by performers. Acts are typically scheduled for two hours (shorter or longer performances can be negotiated). Entertainers receive a small stipend, paid in Market Money coins, redeemable like cash at all market vendor booths.

Please indicate which times you are available to perform:  3-5 p.m.  5-7 p.m.  Any

Nonprofits

We waive the booth fee for eligible nonprofits at one market per season (chosen from the available dates listed above). To attend more than one market, nonprofits may fill out a Non-Food/Arts & Crafts Vendor Application.

Although we waive the booth fee for featured nonprofits, they are still expected to provide their own canopy, table, and chairs. These items can also be rented from the Market on a first come basis.

Agencies who wish to engage in pre-approved fundraising activities or attend more than one market per season must submit a Non-Food/Arts & Crafts Vendor Application. Daily vendor rates apply.

Are you seeking approval for fundraising activities?  Yes  No

Do you need to rent a  Canopy?  Table(s)?  Chair(s)? (see Market Policies and Procedures IV.B-C)

Do you require electricity?  Yes  No (see Market Policies & Procedures, VI.H)
